The maximum dimensions of a folding bike accepted on a Stagecoach Yorkshire/ Stagecoach in Sheffield/ Stagecoach in Chesterfield vehicle is not greater than 24"/ 60cm long, 24"/ 60cm high and 12"/ 30cm wide and weigh no more than 15kg.

During peak periods our buses can be busy and we therefore cannot guarantee you will be able to bring your bike onto the bus. Folding bicycles should be safely and securely stowed in the designated luggage area and must not block gangways and access to emergency exits on the bus. We reserve the right to refuse permission for you to bring the folding bike onto our buses at the discretion of the driver.

We cannot be held responsible for any loss or inconvenience to you if you are refused travel under these circumstances.

You remain responsible for the bike during the duration of your journey. Our liability for folding bikes is limited to £100 per passenger and you are advised to ensure that you have proper insurance if your folding bike is worth more than this. We will not be responsible for damage to folding bikes however caused.

Any carriage of a folding bike is subject to available capacity and complies with our normal "Conditions of carriage".

Any folding bike that exceeds the maximum dimensions or weight along with all non folding bikes will not be permitted on any bus.
